Subject 1: The True Political Source and Character of the DPRK

Subject 2: A Potentially Comprehensive and Effective Approach to the DPRK Crisis

Dear Mr. President / Dr. Gorka:

In a recent interview on Fox News Hannity, in response to questions about DPRK Chairman Kim Jong Un, Dr. Gorka specified the “evil” comparator as the “Soviet Union.”

I wanted to formally thank Dr. Gorka for correctly identifying the political source & character of the grief currently being endured by the innocent good people of North Korea.

A more precise historical rendering is borne by the following composite; the first photograph identifies the true author of that Satanic hole called the USSR:

The fact is, the DPRK represents the last of a long-line of abject social and political failures, exacting untold horror and grief on the subjugated peoples, of so-called communist states. None were really a commune, let alone truly social, at any level. All of the states that descended to the portent of The Communist Manifesto were Godless, tyrannical, parasitic, militaristic and, in those contexts, hell-bent on the originally hidden but later openly proclaimed crux: centralized world domination.

The safety and well-being of the people, as promoted in the Manifesto, was a power-grabbing ruse. The fact that there is a “south” and a “north” is a direct result of that ruse. May Karl Marx and his NKVD comrades rot in Hell. Our job is to rescue the innocent people of North Korea from a similar fate . . .

Regarding Subject 2 . . .

I begin with not-so rhetorical questions. Mr. President, when you decided to announce your intention to run and win the presidency, did you consult with the members of the Senate? The House? The Supreme Court? The NGO news media?

Of course not. Your “consultations” and affirmations were directed at the good American people. Not the parasites, and certainly not the Godless.

I believe a potentially comprehensive and effective approach to the DPRK crisis would entail extolling the fundamental goodness of the North Korean people . . . the last and final victims of the parasitic fraud called The Communist Manifesto. They, like the good people of South Korea, have nothing in conflict with the American electorate who voted for you . . . or even those that did not!

Unlike the fate that befell the good people of Hungary in 1956, I am confident that you will not betray the innocent people that are currently being victimized by the psychotic “leadership” in Pyongyang.

Again, our job is to rescue the innocent people of North Korea from the fraudulent policies of The Communist Manifesto, doing so in the context of its “flagship” failure, the Satanic hole called the USSR.

Respectfully yours,

Paul V. Sheridan
